

The CU Mediterranean Studies Group and supporting units present

The Spanish Empire and the Mediterranean: New Directions

A Kayden Book Prize Symposium in honor of

Céline Dauverd's Church and State in Spanish Italy

“Sacred Monarchs and the Science of Myth: Spain in European Context”

• Luis Corteguera (History, University of Kansas)

“Empire in the Oikumene: Situating Spain’s Mediterranean Interests in its Early Modern Global Empire”

• Andrew Devereux (History, University of California San Diego)
and two round-tables featuring

Brian A. Catlos • James Córdova • Bob Ferry • Gerardo Gutiérrez • Chad Leahy
Roger Martínez Dávila • Andrés Prieto • Diane Sieber • Núria Silleras-Fernández • Rebecca Wartell

12:45--6pm Thursday, 21 April, 2022

The Flatirons Room (C4C)

register to attend in-person or zoom at www.cumediterranean.info by 5pm 18 April

With the special support of:

The Bruce D. Benson Center for the Study of Western Civilization • The CU President’s Fund for the Humanities • Eugene M. Kayden Awards • The Center for Humanities & the Arts

This event is made possible by the support of the following units: Religious Studies, Jewish Studies, Humanities, Bruce D. Benson Center for the Study of Western Civilization, Classics, History, French & Italian, Asian Languages and Civilizations, Spanish and Portuguese, Philosophy, and Art and Art History.

Administrative support provided by Religious Studies.

Information at www.cumediterranean.info